About You

You are a positive, caring, fully trained and credentialed practitioner of East Asian Medicine seeking an opportunity for unprecedented growth.

You are passionate about East Asian Medicine and have a strong desire to make this medicine more accessible to the general population.

You are a skilled, intelligent practitioner with a firm grasp of the theory and philosophy behind East Asian Medicine, acupuncture, and Chinese herbal formation strategies. We are interested in someone who 'gets' the big picture and the spirit of this medicine, is fascinated with depth of this medicine, and has a clear commitment and vision around why they choose to practice this medicine.

You have a compassionate, trauma informed treatment style, with the ability to treat a diverse population with diverse issues.

You want to live in a beautiful place with opportunities for personal growth, stability, and quality of life.
